Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy sets out how St Paul’s School, Monbulk, manages personal information provided to or collected by it.

St Paul’s School is bound by the Australian Privacy Principles contained in the Commonwealth Privacy Act 1988. In relation to health records, St Paul’s School is also bound by the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic.) and the Health Privacy Principles in that Act.

St Paul’s School may, from time to time, review and update this Privacy Policy to take account of new laws and technology, changes to St Paul’s School’s operations and practices and to make sure it remains appropriate to the changing school environment.

What kinds of personal information does St Paul’s School collect and how does St Paul’s School collect it?

The type of information St Paul’s School collects and holds includes (but is not limited to) personal information, including health and other sensitive information, about:

- pupils and parents and/or guardians ('Parents') before, during and after the course of a pupil's enrolment at St Paul’s School including:
  - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth, previous school and religion;
  - medical information (eg details of disability and/or allergies);
  - conduct and complaint records, or other behaviour notes, and school reports;
  - information about referrals to government welfare agencies;
  - counselling reports;
  - health fund details and Medicare number;
  - any court orders;
  - volunteering information (including working with children checks); and
  - photos and videos at school events.

- job applicants, staff members, volunteers and contractors, including:
  - name, contact details (including next of kin), date of birth and religion;
  - information on job application;
  - professional development history;
- salary and payment information, including superannuation details;
- medical information (eg details of disability and/or allergies and medical certificates);
- complaint records and investigation reports;
- leave details;
- photos and videos at school events;
- work emails and private emails (when using work email address) and internet browsing history; and
- other people who come into contact with St Paul’s School, including name and contact details and any other information necessary for the particular contact with St Paul’s School.

Personal Information you provide: St Paul’s School will generally collect personal information held about an individual by way of forms filled out by Parents or pupils, face-to-face meetings and interviews, emails and telephone calls. On occasions people other than Parents and pupils provide personal information.

Personal Information provided by other people: In some circumstances St Paul’s School may be provided with personal information about an individual from a third party, for example a report provided by a medical professional or a reference from another school.

Exception in relation to employee records: Under the Privacy Act, the Australian Privacy Principles do not apply to an employee record. As a result, this Privacy Policy does not apply to St Paul’s School’s treatment of an employee record where the treatment is directly related to a current or former employment relationship between St Paul’s School and employee. St Paul’s School handles staff health records in accordance with the Health Privacy Principles in the Health Records Act 2001 (Vic.).

Anonymity: St Paul’s School needs to be able to identify individuals with whom it interacts and to collect identifiable information about them to facilitate the delivery of schooling to its pupils and its educational and support services, conduct the job application process and fulfil other obligations and processes. However, in some limited circumstances some activities and interactions with St Paul’s School may be done anonymously where practicable, which may include making an inquiry, complaint or providing feedback.

How will St Paul’s School use the personal information you provide?

St Paul’s School will use personal information it collects from you for the primary purpose of collection, and for such other secondary purposes that are related to the primary purpose of collection and reasonably expected by you, or to which you have consented.

Pupils and Parents: In relation to personal information of pupils and Parents, St Paul’s School’s primary purpose of collection is to enable St Paul’s School to provide schooling to pupils enrolled at St Paul’s School (including educational and support services for the pupil), exercise its duty of care and perform necessary associated administrative activities which will enable pupils to take part in all the activities of St Paul’s School. This includes satisfying the needs of Parents, the needs of the pupil and the needs of St Paul’s School throughout the whole period the pupil is enrolled at St Paul’s School.

The purposes for which St Paul’s School uses personal information of pupils and Parents include:

- to keep Parents informed about matters related to their child's schooling, through correspondence, newsletters and magazines;
- day-to-day administration of St Paul’s School;
- looking after pupils' educational, social and medical wellbeing;
- seeking donations and marketing for St Paul’s School; and
- to satisfy St Paul’s School’s legal obligations and allow St Paul’s School to discharge its duty of care.

In some cases where St Paul’s School requests personal information about a pupil or Parent, if the information requested is not provided, St Paul’s School may not be able to enrol or continue the enrolment of the pupil or permit the pupil to take part in a particular activity.

Job applicants and contractors: In relation to personal information of job applicants and contractors, St Paul’s School's primary purpose of collection is to assess and (if successful) to engage the applicant, or contractor, as the case may be.

The purposes for which St Paul’s School uses personal information of job applicants and contractors include:

- administering the individual's employment or contract, as the case may be;
- for insurance purposes;
- seeking donations and marketing for St Paul’s School; and
- satisfying St Paul’s School's legal obligations, for example, in relation to child protection legislation.

Volunteers: St Paul’s School also obtains personal information about volunteers who assist St Paul’s School in its functions or conduct associated activities, such as [alumni associations], to enable St Paul’s School and the volunteers to work together.

Counsellors: If or where St Paul’s School contracts with external providers to provide counselling services for some pupils, the principal may require the Counsellor to inform him or her or other teachers of any issues the Counsellor believes may be necessary for St Paul’s School to know for the well-being or development of the pupil who is counselled or other pupils at St Paul’s School.

Parish: St Paul’s School may disclose personal information to St Paul’s School parish to facilitate religious and sacramental programs, and other activities such as fundraising.

Marketing and fundraising: St Paul’s School treats marketing and seeking donations for the future growth and development of St Paul’s School as an important part of ensuring that St Paul’s School continues to provide a quality learning environment in which both pupils and staff thrive. Personal information held by St Paul’s School may be disclosed to organisations.
that assist in St Paul’s School’s fundraising, for example, St Paul’s School's Foundation or alumni organisation [or, on occasions, external fundraising organisations].

Parents, staff, contractors and other members of the wider School community may from time to time receive fundraising information. School publications, like newsletters and magazines, which include personal information, may be used for marketing purposes.

Who might St Paul’s School disclose personal information to and store your information with?

St Paul’s School may disclose personal information, including sensitive information, held about an individual for educational, administrative and support purposes. This may include to:

- School service providers which provide educational, support and health services to St Paul’s School, including the Catholic Education Commission of Victoria Ltd, (CECV), Catholic Education Offices, specialist visiting teachers, volunteers, counsellors, sports coaches and providers of learning and assessment tools;
- third party service providers that provide online educational and assessment support services or applications to schools and school systems including the Integrated Catholic Online Network (ICON) and Google’s G Suite, including Gmail;
- other third parties which St Paul’s School uses to support or enhance the educational or pastoral care services for its students;
- another school including to its teachers to facilitate the transfer of a student;
- government departments;
- medical practitioners;
- recipients of School publications, such as newsletters and magazines;
- pupil's parents or guardians and their emergency contacts;
- assessment and educational authorities including the Australian Curriculum, Assessment and Reporting Authority;
- anyone you authorise St Paul’s School to disclose information to; and
- anyone to whom we are required or authorised to disclose the information to by law, including child protection laws.

Sending and storing information overseas: St Paul’s School may disclose personal information about an individual to overseas recipients, for instance, to facilitate a school exchange. However, St Paul’s School will not send personal information about an individual outside Australia without:

- obtaining the consent of the individual (in some cases this consent will be implied); or
- otherwise complying with the Australian Privacy Principles or other applicable privacy legislation.
St Paul’s School may also store personal information [including sensitive information] in the 'cloud'. This means that the information is held on the servers of third party cloud service providers engaged by St Paul’s School. The servers may be situated in or outside Australia.

St Paul’s School may from time to time use the services of third party online service providers (including for the delivery of services and third party online applications, or Apps relating to email, instant messaging and education and assessment, such as Google’s G Suite, including Gmail) which may be accessible by you. Some personal information [including sensitive information] may be collected and processed or stored by these providers in connection with these services. These online service providers may be located in or outside Australia.

St Paul’s School has made reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the protection of any personal information that cloud and third party service providers collect and process or hold outside Australia as not all countries are bound by laws which provide the same level of protection as the APPs.

School personnel, the CECV and the service providers may have the ability to access, monitor, use or disclose emails, communications (e.g. instant messaging), documents and associated administrative data for the purposes of administering the system and services ensuring their proper use. St Paul’s School makes reasonable efforts to be satisfied about the security of any personal information processed and stored outside Australia as not all countries are bound by laws which provide the same level of protection for personal information provided by the APPs.

The countries in which the servers of cloud service providers and other third party service providers are located may include:

- Australia
- United States of America
- Chile
- Taiwan
- Singapore
- Ireland
- Netherlands
- Finland
- Belgium

Where personal and sensitive information is retained by a cloud service provider on behalf of CECV to facilitate HR and staff administrative support, this information will be stored on servers located within Australia. This includes the ICON system.

How does St Paul’s School treat sensitive information?

In referring to 'sensitive information', St Paul’s School means: information relating to a person’s racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religion, trade union or other professional or trade association membership, philosophical beliefs, sexual orientation or practices or criminal record, that is also personal information; health information and biometric information about an individual.
Sensitive information will be used and disclosed only for the purpose for which it was provided or a directly related secondary purpose, unless you agree otherwise, or the use or disclosure of the sensitive information is allowed by law.

Management and security of personal information

St Paul’s School's staff are required to respect the confidentiality of pupils' and Parents' personal information and the privacy of individuals.

St Paul’s School has in place steps to protect the personal information St Paul’s School holds from misuse, interference and loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure by use of various methods including locked storage of paper records and password access rights to computerised records.

Access and correction of personal information

Under the Commonwealth Privacy Act and the Health Records Act, an individual has the right to seek and obtain access to any personal information and health records respectively which St Paul’s School holds about them and to advise St Paul’s School of any perceived inaccuracy. Pupils will generally be able to access and update their personal information through their Parents, but older pupils may seek access and correction themselves.

There are some exceptions to these rights set out in the applicable legislation.

To make a request to access or to update any personal information St Paul’s School holds about you or your child, please contact the Principal by telephone or in writing. St Paul’s School may require you to verify your identity and specify what information you require. St Paul’s School may charge a fee to cover the cost of verifying your application and locating, retrieving, reviewing and copying any material requested. If the information sought is extensive, St Paul’s School will advise the likely cost in advance. If we cannot provide you with access to that information, we will provide you with written notice explaining the reasons for refusal.

Consent and rights of access to the personal information of pupils

St Paul’s School respects every Parent’s right to make decisions concerning their child’s education.

Generally, St Paul’s School will refer any requests for consent and notices in relation to the personal information of a pupil to the pupil’s Parents. St Paul’s School will treat consent given by Parents as consent given on behalf of the pupil, and notice to Parents will act as notice given to the pupil.

Parents may seek access to personal information held by St Paul’s School about them or their child by contacting the Principal by telephone or in writing. However, there may be occasions when access is denied. Such occasions would include where release of the information would have an unreasonable impact on the privacy of others, or where the release may result in a breach of St Paul’s School's duty of care to the pupil.

St Paul’s School may, at its discretion, on the request of a pupil grant that pupil access to information held by St Paul’s School about them, or allow a pupil to give or withhold consent to the use of their personal information, independently of their Parents. This would normally be done only when the maturity of the pupil and/or the pupil's personal circumstances warrant it.

Enquiries and complaints

If you would like further information about the way St Paul’s School manages the personal information it holds, or wish to complain that you believe that St Paul’s School has breached the Australian Privacy Principles please contact the Principal by writing or telephone at 97567201. St Paul’s School will investigate any complaint and will notify you of the making of a decision in relation to your complaint as soon as is practicable after it has been made.